some consideration. I don't see Senator Janssen. Oh, I see him. Senator Janssen, I'd like to ask you a question if you don't mind being drawn into the maelstrom.

SENATOR CUDABACK PRESIDING

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Janssen, will you yield to a question, please?

SENATOR JANSSEN: (Microphone malfunction)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Janssen, I see a bill that reminds me of those little plastic, air-filled dolls that have lead in the bottom and every time you knock it down it bounces right back up. Have you see them?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Oh sure.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I see a bill, LB 429, which makes me think of that.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yeah, it just keep popping up, doesn't it?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are you familiar with that bill?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Seems to me I've run across that a couple of times in the last two years, um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Does it mean a great, great deal to you, or just kind of one of those things?

SENATOR JANSSEN: It should mean a great deal to the entire state, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, it should, but it doesn't mean anything to the state. So, to you, does it mean a great, great, great deal, or just a great deal?

SENATOR JANSSEN: It means a great deal to me.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And if it does not pass, what will happen to
